- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Additional grounds for complaint relating to results and post-results:

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, WEST BRIDGFORD SCHOOL encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by writing to the head of centre, who will then arrange for the complaint to be investigated..

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to The Exams Officer. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 7 calendar days..

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete and return a complaints and appeals form..

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 4 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must submit the appeal in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 7 calendar days.

The appeal will be referred to an Appeals Panel for consideration.

It will be the responsibility of the Head of Centre or the appointed member of the Senior Leadership Team / the Appeals Panel to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
