

Welcome to Year 13 History

In the second year of A level study, pupils continue investigating the Tudors from the beginning of the reign of Edward VI in 1547 through to the death of Elizabeth I in 1603. They also study Communist Russia between 1929 and 1953. By Easter, students will also have completed a coursework essay on America between 1763 and 1865.

SIS

The History SIS will provide a range of articles, videos and questions to further students' knowledge and thinking in this area.

Assessment

Assessment will take the form of practice essay and source questions based on AQA examination formats. They will be set at the discretion of the teacher.

Homework

Homework will take the form of research tasks, essay questions and work from the SIS to support learning in class.
