

Welcome to the world of Year 12 Politics, with more ups and downs and twists and turns than any roller-coaster you've ever ridden.

You've picked it so you clearly have an interest in what's going on around you which is a great start. So, what will you be studying:

Miss Cartwright and Politics of the UK

- Democracy and political participation
- Electoral systems
- Voting behaviour and the role of the media in politics
- Political parties and pressure groups

Mr Whitehead/Mr Shaw and Government of the UK

- Historical context of the UK political system
- The constitution
- Devolution
- The EU
- Parliament
- The prime minister and the executive
- The Supreme Court
